¹ According to a European Commission study on Equality Bodies, predominantly quasi-judicial bodies are “impartial institutions which spend the bulk of their time and resources hearing, investigating and deciding on individual instances of discrimination brought before them” (page 43);
Brief history

The Board of Equal Treatment was established on 1 January 2009 by law.

The Board makes decisions based on the following Danish laws:

- Act on Ethnic Equal Treatment;
- Act on Prohibition of Discrimination in the Labour Market;
- Gender Equality (Consolidation) Act;
- Consolidation Act on Equal Pay to Men and Women;
- Consolidation Act on Equal Treatment of Men and Women as regards Access to Employment and Maternity Leave;
- Law on Equal Treatment between Men and Women in Occupational Schemes;
- Act on Child Care Leave;
- Act on Entitlement to Leave and Benefits in the Event of Childbirth.

The Board can only base its decisions on written information and evidence.

The case is decided in a meeting where 1 chairman/woman and 2 board members participate.

Decisions made by the Board are final and binding for both parties. In certain situations, the Board can decide that the complainant is entitled to compensation.

Mandate

- Powers: the Board of Equal Treatment is a predominantly quasi-judicial body;
- Litigation powers:
  - Formally deciding on complaints (decision or recommendation) – legally binding. In case of non-compliance with the Board’s decision, the secretariat of the Board of Equal Treatment must – upon the complainant’s request and on his/her behalf – bring the case to court. The Board will however not serve as party to the case, as this will be the complainant.
